She most looks forward to the communication aspect of her role as secretary and hopes to get to know as many of you as possible in the upcoming year. Anna has competed at State for the last two years in a total of six events, qualifying in the top ten at SBLC for Public Speaking last year, and for NLC in Sales Presentation this year. She hopes to attend the California Polytechnic State University after High School, and major in biochemistry. After college, she plans to go on to medical school. When she is not busy with FBLA or school, she enjoys playing soccer, kayaking, and hiking with her dog. Anna wants to help maximize each member's experience in FBLA, and is excited to take on any task that comes her way. FBLA provides members with the opportunity to grow in their leadership skills, confidence, and connect with others who share their interests across the state. She is excited to see what the coming year has in store for Washington FBLA- it's going to be a great year!
