Happy October, Advisers!

Fall Leadership Conferences

This week kicks off our conference season! We hope you are making plans with your students to attend your region's Fall Leadership Conference (FLC)! FLCs are a great way for students to get excited about FBLA . . . students do not have to be members to attend your region's FLC, so gather as many as you can to experience this initial conference of the year! If you have questions about which region you should attend or who to contact for your region information, please let me know! Our list of Regional Advisers is available on our Web site at <http://wafbla.org/regional-advisers>. Conference registration links are also available on our Web site at <http://wafbla.org/regional-conferences>.

Adviser Conferences

All of our Adviser Conferences are happening this week! The dress for these conferences is casual. We're excited to see many of you at one of them!

Registration includes breakfast at 8:30 a.m., lunch, an afternoon snack, and clock hours, but preregistration is required. We will provide training from approximately 9 a.m. to between 2:30 and 3:00 p.m. We'll cover some FBLA basics as well as chapter management and working with officer teams.

Adviser Information Form

If you have not completed the Washington FBLA Adviser Information Form, please be sure to do so. We are collecting adviser information from all advisers to be sure our records are correct for the year. You can find the form at the link below.

State Officer Corner

Tips & Tricks Tuesday Video. Be sure to share our most recent Tips and Tricks Tuesday episode in which our Northeast Region VP, JT Gasper discusses what guys should wear to competition. Ask your members if they would be interested in appearing in one of these videos! We are looking to engage our membership and want to hear from students!!
