ELIGIBILITY

The top five winners at the regional conferences may enter this event. If a chapter has no winners in the top five, it may enter one participant.

1. All participants must be on record in the FBLA state and national offices as paying dues by February 15.
2. Participants must be selected in accordance with the regulations of the local chapter and the state association.
3. Participants must not have won first place in this event at a State Business Leadership Conference nor entered this event at a National Leadership Conference.
4. Participants failing to report on time will not be permitted to compete.
5. Participants must adhere to the dress code established by the Board of Directors, or they will not be permitted to participate in the competitive event.

OVERVIEW

Participants will be given a topic related to one or more of the following: FBLA-PBL Goals, FBLA-PBL activities, FBLA-PBL current national programs, current events, and/or relevant business topics. The goals include:

- Develop competent, aggressive business leadership
- Strengthen the confidence of students in themselves and their work
- Create more interest in and understanding of the American business enterprise
- Encourage members in the development of individual projects that contribute to the improvement of home, business, and community
- Develop character, prepare for useful citizenship, and foster patriotism
- Encourage and practice efficient money management
- Encourage scholarship and promote school loyalty
- Assist students in the establishment of occupational goals
- Facilitate the transition from school to work

GUIDELINES

Preliminary Performance

1. Participants will be assigned times for the preliminaries. Participants must report to the event area five (5) minutes prior to their scheduled preparation time.
2. Participants will be given ten (10) minutes to prepare their speeches prior to appearing before the judges. All participants will address the same topic in their speeches.
3. Two (2) 4" x 6" note cards will be given to each participant and may be used during the preparation and performance. Information may be written on both sides of the note card. Note cards will be collected following the presentation.
4. No reference materials, visual aids, or electronic devices may be brought to or used during the preparation or presentation.
5. Each speech should be four (4) minutes in length.

6. A timekeeper will stand at three (3) minutes and again at four (4) minutes. When the speaker is finished, the time used by the participant will be recorded, noting a deduction of five (5) points for time under 3:31 or over 4:29 minutes.
7. The preliminary performances are not open to conference attendees.
8. The number of participants selected for the final performance will be fifteen (15).

Final Performance

1. Participants will be assigned performance times prior to the first speech. Finals lists will be posted as soon as possible after the completion of the preliminary round. It is the participant's responsibility to verify finals eligibility.
2. Finalists must report to the preparation room five (5) minutes prior to their scheduled time.
3. The final performance is open to conference attendees who are not performing participants of this event.
4. All other procedures as outlined in the preliminary round will be followed for the final round.

JUDGING

Speeches will be evaluated by a panel of judges. All decisions of the judges are final.

STATE AWARDS

The judges will determine the number of awards presented at the State Business Leadership Conference. The maximum number will be five (5).

NATIONAL ENTRIES

Washington State may enter two (2) winners in this event for national competition.
