

Helen Tran attends Hazen High School in the class of 2021. She became an FBLA member two years ago as a freshman and actively participates with her local chapter. She is a two-year regional and state champ.

Additionally, Helen attended NLC in 2018 and this conference opened her eyes to the large impacts that FBLA can make in people's lives. Right after NLC, she was chosen to serve on the Western Region Council as the Social Media representative, which motivated her to run for state office and pushed her to run for higher positions.

She plans to attend the University of Washington Foster School of Business for an undergraduate degree. She is not sure what she wants to study, but she knows that she wants to pursue a career in business which she decided through FBLA.

We all join FBLA for different reasons but the reason why we stay is what is important. We stay because FBLA helps us find our passions and to find the importance of leadership. Ultimately, regardless of where and what you study, given the chance, opportunities like these are what create the future leaders for the new generation. She is so very grateful to be involved in FBLA and to serve as Washington FBLA 2019-2020 public relations officer.
