

2021-2022
State Officer
Candidate Handbook

Dear Dedicated FBLA Members:

CONGRATULATIONS on your decision to become a State Officer Candidate! While we only have a limited number of positions available, the journey you are about to embark on will be an impactful and eye-opening leadership experience in itself. Washington FBLA recognizes State Officer Candidates as outstanding members who not only Aspire to elevate their leadership, but also Aspire to create powerful membership experiences. You are one of those rare individuals who strive to move our organization to great heights, and we are so excited to follow along your journey. When I made my transition to lead our organization, I transformed from an opportunity seeker to an opportunity provider and from a narrow-minded individual to an ambitious leader. I am confident that this journey will also bring about a similar sense of growth within you and be a life-shaping opportunity.

This State Officer Candidate Guide has been produced to share more information regarding the Washington FBLA state officer election process. In this guide are all the policies and procedures that will equip you to run a successful campaign, as well as job descriptions and a schedule of events that outline what your year as an officer may look like. The appropriate state officer forms and rubrics will help you plan a successful campaign. Serving my second term as a state officer, I've experienced the in-person and virtual campaign experience you are about to embark on. So as a token of advice, make sure you closely read each page of this guide to understand the changes for this year.

The Washington FBLA Board of Advisers and the Board of Directors believe so strongly in our state officers that for over the past ten years it has provided the Washington State Officer Team with professional leadership coaches. The ultimate goal we have for you as a state officer is to be well trained and equipped so that you can become respected leaders for Washington FBLA, which, in turn, will make you respected leaders in whatever you do.

It has been said that “In order to succeed, we must first believe we can.” Washington FBLA believes in you, and we are eager to assist you in running for state office. Please contact any member of the state management team or state officer team for assistance in your quest to become a state leader of Washington FBLA, we are always a message or email away!

“Leadership is not a position or title. It is action and example.” Given the nature of this year’s campaign, we encourage and trust that you practice ethical, community-minded leadership in your state officer campaign.

Our best wishes for great success now and in the future!

Sathvik Nallamalli

CANDIDATE POLICY GUIDELINES

FBLA Election Process

The chapter adviser is the only person authorized to initiate State Officer candidate proceedings.

There are five phases leading to the election of a Washington FBLA State Officer:

1. Complete the "Future Level" of the Business Achievement Award Program
2. Complete the application process by the required deadline
3. Complete an interview with the WA FBLA State Officer Candidate Screening Committee
4. Participate in all campaign and election activities at the State Business Leadership Conference (virtual or in-person)
5. Election during the State Business Leadership Conference

If elected, there is a required State Officer Orientation Meeting held within one week of the Installation Ceremony held during the virtual SBLC. The meeting will last no more than one hour.

If there are no candidates available for an office, the Board of Advisers will determine what the next steps shall be.

Elected Officers

The following State Officers shall be elected annually at the State Business Leadership Conference by the state chapter voting delegates. The election will be determined by the scores for application materials and interview, a candidate commercial, and the votes cast.

- President
 - Executive Vice President*
- *See Eligibility, #8 below
- Eight (8) Region Vice Presidents
 - Public Relations Officer
 - Secretary

Appointed Officers

Nominees for the appointed positions shall follow the same application process as elected officers, with materials due by the published deadline. The selected candidates will be announced at the Installation Ceremony.

Vice President of Alumni and Business Relations

- The selection team will appoint the Vice President of Alumni and Business Relations officer based on application materials and interview conducted at SBLC. This position does not submit a platform video, present a speech, or prepare a campaign booth. Candidates must follow all other candidate guidelines including officer orientation at SBLC and application process as elected officers, with materials due by the published deadline.

Parliamentarian

- The selection team will appoint the Parliamentarian based on application materials, score from Parliamentary Procedures objective test, and interview conducted at SBLC. This position does not submit a platform video, present a speech, or prepare a campaign booth. Candidates must follow all other candidate guidelines including officer orientation at SBLC and application process as elected officers, with materials due by the published deadline.

Selection Elements

There are three elements considered in the selection of WA FBLA State Officers. Combined scores will be used to select qualified candidates as follows:

25% Application Materials

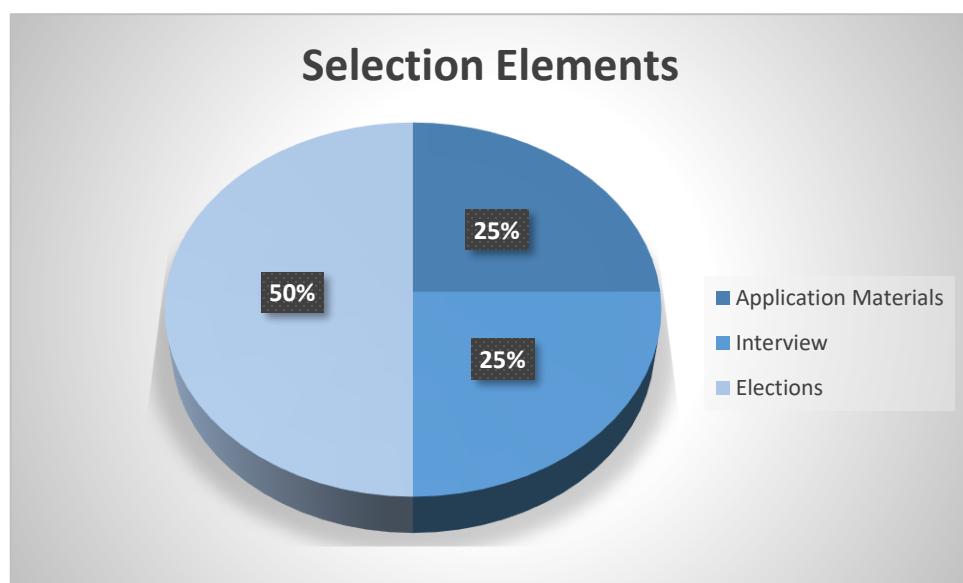

The applications are judged based on the application and video rubric. Applicants are encouraged to concentrate on accuracy, completion, and professionalism when preparing their application.

25% Interview

Interviews are conducted by the interview committee using the interview rubric. A tie is broken based on interview scores.

50% Elections

Campaigning and elections take place during SBLC. Elections are based on the votes cast by the voting delegates present.

Eligibility Requirements

The following outlines the minimum requirements that must be met in order for Washington FBLA to accept a member for State Officer Candidacy. To be eligible for state office, the following criteria must be met:

1. A candidate must be an active member in good standing of Washington FBLA and National FBLA by March 1 of the current school year. A candidate must be a member of a state approved FBLA chapter and be an active member of that chapter.
2. It is strongly recommended that the candidate have held or be holding an FBLA chapter office or other leadership role in Student Council, school clubs/organizations, or other civic/community organizations. However, this is not a requirement.
3. A candidate may be a freshman, sophomore, or junior. Seniors are not eligible to run for State Office. Candidates must maintain active membership in a local FBLA chapter.
4. A candidate must have earned a GPA of 2.50 (4.00 scale) or better for the term preceding their running for office and must maintain a GPA of 2.50 or greater throughout their term of office if elected. This includes both ensuring their cumulative GPA remains above a 2.5, and that each term's GPA is a 2.5 or better.
5. The term of office will be from the close of the State Business Leadership Conference where the officer is elected to the close of the following State Business Leadership Conference when the newly elected officer team begins their term. The term for officers appointed after the State Business Leadership Conference will be from their date of appointment and will last until the close of the following State Business Leadership Conference along with the rest of the officer team.
6. To be eligible to run for a state office, each candidate must complete and submit all forms and documentation and must complete each step of the election process outlined in this guide.
7. Attend the State Business Leadership Conference.
8. To be eligible to run for the office of Executive Vice President, the candidate must agree to run a campaign for a position on the FBLA National Officer Team. Failure to run a campaign at the National Leadership Conference will automatically disqualify an individual from serving as Executive Vice President. If elected at the State Business Leadership Conference, candidates for Executive Vice President must work closely with the Executive Director and State Officer Coach in preparing their campaign for the National Leadership Conference. The national officer deadlines are soon after SBLC, so if running for Executive Vice President, it would be a strong suggestion to have reviewed the national candidate guide prior to SBLC and be prepared to submit the required documents well ahead of the national deadline.

IS RUNNING FOR STATE OFFICE RIGHT FOR ME?

The opportunities provided to state officers are tremendous, and many state officer alumni consider their time as an officer as a pivotal experience in their life. Along with the opportunities and benefits of being an officer comes many important responsibilities. Take the opportunity to carefully consider your decision to run for state office and what it requires.

The average state officer will spend five to ten hours a week working on state officer projects and responsibilities. Prior to state officer meetings, conferences and FBLA events, the amount of time required tends to spike as officers finalize preparations and polish up projects. It is important to realize that although academics remain the number one priority, you will not be able to fall behind in your responsibilities as an FBLA officer. You are required to participate in the team decision making process, perform your assigned tasks, and attend all required conferences and events.

If you are elected, you are required to attend conferences, officer meetings, and FBLA events throughout the year, these will occur either in person or virtually. You are not allowed to leave early, arrive late, or miss any parts of these events (except in the case of an extreme emergency). State officers have had to miss big games, dances, trips, etc., because these activities conflicted with state officer responsibilities. The expectation is that your state officer responsibilities and commitments take priority, after your academics.

Please carefully review the documents and information in this guide to ensure you fully understand what is expected/required of you as a state officer if you are elected.

If you are willing to make this commitment, and you are the type of person that has the drive to succeed and the encouragement and dedication to get the job done, an FBLA office is definitely for you. If you are unsure, you may want to speak with your adviser to see if running for a state officer is the right decision for you. If you decide to run for office, be assured that holding state office will be one of the most memorable experiences of your life, and one of the most effective career preparation experiences you can have while in high school.

<http://leadable.info/WAFBLA21-22SOCandidate>

STEP 6: CANDIDATE SCREENING INTERVIEW

All applicants will participate in a virtual interview prior to SBLC. The Screening Committee will be comprised of the State Officer Coach, one Regional Adviser, two current State Officers, and one adviser (for Region Vice President interviews, the adviser needs to be from that region). Applicants will be asked a variety of questions, which may include, but are not limited to, qualifications for office, leadership experience, duties and time commitments required to be an officer. Failure to participate in an interview may result in immediate disqualification.

The interview makes up 25% of the overall score for all candidates. The interviews are judged based on the application rubric (See the State Officer Candidate Rating sheets at the end of this packet for the interview rubric). Interviewers are encouraged to concentrate on candidate's poise, conduct, sincerity, and overall impression at the interview.

Schedules for interviews will be sent out with acceptance letter after the submission deadline.

STEP 7: CANDIDATE BRIEFING MEETING

Each candidate is required to attend the Candidate Briefing Meeting. Please be dressed in appropriate business casual attire, i.e., FBLA polo, button up collared shirt, dress blouse, etc. Information on date and time are included in the "Application Timeline" section below.

All qualified candidates for state office must attend this Officer Candidate Briefing Session, which will be held prior to the conference Opening Session. Those candidates not attending the meeting may be disqualified.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Candidates may use social media as part of their campaign, but not before the opening of the campaign period. Social media activity related to your campaign is not permitted before or after the times listed in the Candidate Campaigning Guidelines that will be distributed to approved candidates prior to the Candidate Briefing call.

You are allowed to post about FBLA on personal or FBLA related accounts prior to April 21, but you must NOT announce your intent to run or advertise your campaign platform until after April 21. Should the Committee see social media content to violate these rules, you will be asked to take it down and may be disqualified.

Candidates may not launch any social media campaign activities that incur expenses for the campaign. Use of free features and actions on social media platforms is allowed. Launch of giveaways, paid social media advertisements, and other actions resulting in cost of some kind is not allowed. Social media regulations will be set out in the Candidate Campaigning Guidelines distributed to approved candidates prior to the Candidate Briefing call.

CAMPAIN RULES

1. All campaign materials must be in good taste.
2. Candidates are not allowed to begin campaigning of any kind prior to the published start time for campaigning at the State Business Leadership Conference at which they are campaigning. This includes campaigning via email, social media profiles, direct messages, and comments, websites, YouTube, chapter mailings, chapter visits, phone calls, text messages, etc. Campaigning by candidates will occur during the times set out in the Candidate Campaigning Guidelines distributed to approved candidates prior to the Candidate Briefing call.
3. To ensure a fair playing field for campaigns there is a $500 limit on campaign spending (for booths, promotional materials, giveaways, raffle items, decorations, etc.) This includes in-kind donations. Candidates may not spend more than $500 on their campaign or have more than $500 of items donated or any combination of the two that exceeds $500 total. Prices of donated items are to be fair market value and candidates must be prepared to submit receipts documenting their expenditures/donations. Fair market value is to be determined based on what a reasonable person would expect to pay for an item when looking to purchase it and what a reasonable seller would be willing to sell it for. For example, indicating that a brand-new iPad was donated to be used as a raffle item and the fair market value of the iPad was $100.00 would be unreasonable.
4. Each candidate will bring a final Campaign Expense Report to their interview at the State Business Leadership Conference at which they are campaigning to ensure candidate adhered to the $500 spending limit. The final report should show any changes from the original report submitted with your application.

CAMPAIGN SUGGESTIONS

It is never too early to start planning! Make sure you schedule specific tasks that need to be done so that the ideas and plans will be accomplished in a neat and thorough manner. By having a set schedule and sticking to it, all campaign materials will be finished before the date of campaigning, and there will not be a mad rush at the last minute.

Campaigning is what you make of it. Campaign as if you are running against the ideal candidate and give the members your best effort!

- Read thoroughly the Washington FBLA State Officer Candidate Guide to be clear on the campaign regulations and what the duty of each office entails.
- Have a theme that will be easy to build ideas on and which will have a positive, memorable effect on the delegates.
- Integrate the campaign theme throughout the campaign speech.
- Develop a fact sheet or brochure to state the candidate's qualities, ideas, and goals.
- Develop a campaign budget and stick to it.
- Practice your campaign speech in front of others.
- Develop a list of caucus questions, write down your answers and practice your responses. Consider holding mock caucus with your chapter to prepare for the live session in front of hundreds of members at the State Business Leadership Conference.
- Contact current state officers to learn about what being a state officer is all about, what the state priorities are, and how to best prepare to be successful as an officer.
- Review the Washington FBLA and National FBLA website in order to increase your knowledge of programs and information.

PURPOSE

Becoming a Washington FBLA State Officer requires a commitment on the part of all parties concerned. In order to make that commitment, each party must understand their responsibility to this leadership training experience. In order for a candidate to be eligible for office, all parties indicated must sign this agreement. State officer candidates should understand that, if elected, attendance at all state officer meetings and activities is mandatory and that failure to attend any of these meetings will result in their removal from office, with the exception of emergencies/unsafe traveling conditions. They should also understand that they may be removed from office if in the opinion of the State Management Team they fail to comply with State Officer responsibilities/assignments or participate in activities/conduct, which would reflect negatively on Washington FBLA or the State Officer Team.

- Perform to the best of his/her ability the duties of the elected office. (Review the State Officer Job Description section of this packet for a partial listing.)

I further understand that if, in the opinion of the majority of the Management Team, State Officer Coach, or the Executive Director, I fail to fulfill my responsibilities and obligations of office, and/or I violate the Washington FBLA Code of Conduct, I can be removed from office. Should I fail to complete the duties of my office, I will be liable to return to FBLA the amount expended for my participation during my term in office."

If you choose to be a State Officer, you will be required to attend all of the scheduled State Officer activities no matter what other conflicts arise. If you are not willing to put FBLA activities ahead of local and personal activities (not including school, family, and religious obligations), please do not apply to be a State Officer.

Attention Advisers, Parents, School Officials, and Employers

The preceding Washington FBLA schedule of required meetings will result in the student missing over 15 school days plus additional days of weekend and vacation time. Appendix D: CODE OF CONDUCT AGREEMENT

PRINT & SUBMIT THIS FORM.

Please answer all questions completely, but concisely on the following form.

This Code of Conduct is applicable throughout the officer's term of office for all FBLA events, activities, meetings, and conferences.

FBLA, as an integral part of the Business Education programs in Washington, offers training to students with career objectives in business and office occupations. Because individual conduct and appearance is a phase of this training, it becomes the responsibility of all delegates to conduct themselves in a proper, businesslike manner at all times from the time they leave home until they return home.

Attendance at any FBLA sponsored conference or activity is a special privilege. Knowing that any organization is judged largely by the behavior of its individual participants, the following Code of Conduct is to be subscribed to by members, guests, and advisers who attend any FBLA conference or sponsored activity:

- All chapter members attending the FBLA Leadership Conferences are required to attend all sessions of the conferences, unless previously arranged by chapter advisers according to District policy.
- All persons shall behave in a courteous and respectful manner, refraining from language and actions that might bring discredit upon themselves, their school, their home, their friends, the conference, or upon the FBLA organization.
- Attendants are guests using the facilities; special care should be taken to not deface or destroy any property. Individuals who inflict damage to the hotel rooms or the building will be held liable for any costs incurred for repair.
- Dress regulations established for the conference shall be business attire. Conservative sportswear will be appropriate in specifically designed situations. Delegates shall abide by the dress code established by the Washington and National Board of Directors for all state functions. Delegates not adhering to the dress code shall not be admitted to the functions listed above. Read conference packets for specific instructions.
- Curfew regulations shall be interpreted to mean that each person shall be in his/her hotel room by the published curfew. Each delegate shall remain in his/her room until 6:00 a.m. the next morning. No chapter activities will occur after curfew. It is the responsibility of advisers to enforce curfew with the assistance of security personnel; regardless of the number of delegates a chapter brings to a conference, it is imperative that each adviser personally supervise hotel hallways for the first ½ hour after curfew.
- Student delegates shall: 1) keep their adult advisers informed of the specific activities and whereabouts at all times; 2) not use their own cars or ride in cars belonging to others during the conference, unless otherwise approved by the local district adviser; 3) not engage in dating or other activities with non-conference students except if pre-approved by school; 4) not participate in inappropriate, lewd behavior or any sexual activities; 5) leave room door wide open and/or have Adviser/Chaperone present when meeting with members of the opposite sex in the same room; 6) not partake in hazing activities.
- No alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, or tobacco in any form shall be possessed or used at any time or under any circumstances on public or private properties. Use or possession of such substances may subject the student delegate to criminal prosecution.
- School district policy shall be in effect for adviser/adult ratio during all Washington FBLA activities. If a district does not have a policy, a ratio of 10 students to 1 adviser/adult will be in effect.
- Identification badges are to be worn at all times throughout the conference. For security reasons, delegates should not wear name badges while away from the conference facilities and functions.
- Student delegates are not permitted to leave conference facilities without the approval of their adviser.

- Advisers are responsible for taking all reasonable precautions to ensure the safety of their student delegates at all FBLA functions and must be readily available in case of an emergency.
- Delegates shall respect and abide by the authority vested in the Washington Board of Trustees.
- No adviser should accept responsibility for a student delegate from another school without a written agreement between the administrations of the two schools. That agreement should be attached to the registration forms. No student delegates will be accepted without an adviser listed or a written agreement attached.
- Adult student delegates shall abide by the rules and regulations for a minor student delegate.
- Serious misconduct shall be reported to the adviser, principal, parents, and, if necessary, the proper authorities. Any further disciplinary action will be determined by board action and may result in up to one calendar year of ineligibility.
- Advisers are responsible for the supervision of conduct. Student delegates who disregard the Code of Conduct will be subject to disciplinary action and may be sent home at their own expense and will be disqualified from competitive awards or withdrawn from office, if applicable. Parents and/or school district officials will be notified.
- It is agreed that, upon violation of the Code of Conduct, the violators may be asked to vacate their hotel rooms and withdraw from the conference activities by the proper FBLA authorities.

Advisers are responsible for the supervision of delegate conduct. The delegate's adviser and Washington FBLA Executive Director shall first discuss serious Washington FBLA Code of Conduct violations. Delegate's parents, school principal, and, if necessary, the proper authorities will then be notified.

Student delegates who are guilty of misconduct will be subject to disciplinary action; a delegate may be: 1) asked to vacate his/her hotel room immediately and sent home independently from other chapter delegation members resulting in additional travel expenses to the delegate and the delegate's parents; 2) disqualified from competitive awards; and 3) if applicable, removed from office. Anyone being in the willful companionship of another person violating the FBLA Code of Conduct will also be subject to disciplinary action.

Upon a violation occurring, parents/guardians will be notified that their child is being sent home. It is understood that parents will be available to pick up their child and/or willing to pay additional travel expenses incurred by their child from the hotel to the bus station and/or airport (example: taxi), extra bus fare and/or airfare required to travel home, and transportation charges from the bus station and/or airport terminal to their home. Parents, if necessary, will be liable for adviser expenditures resulting from accompanying their child to his/her departure location. Any further disciplinary action will be determined by the Washington FBLA Board of Advisers and may result in up to one calendar year of ineligibility.
