Get Connected

As the new year starts for FBLA, we are so excited for all the new programs we have in store. Some of the programs include workshops with our very own alumni speaking. These workshops allows students to get face to face interaction with people like you to help them.

Not every student can get to those in person workshops so the digital series helps students learn virtually. We ask simple questions about your life after FBLA and how FBLA helped you become successful! Without you non of theses programs are possible. We highly encourage to get connected this year!

New Start

FBLA is so important to many people. For the new upcoming year, we have a new and improved logo! This new logo captivates the original colors of blue and gold and also emphasizes the three keywords: service, education, and progress. The delta also shows the unity FBLA has in our community. This symbol opens up new opportunities for Washington FBLA through community and unity!

Upcoming

Member/Chapter of the Season

This year we have decided to change our member/chapter of the month to season. This allows the title to be more special because of the fewer people allowed to get the title. It also lets us recognize them better with more recognition!

DEI Guide

This guide contains tools and resources for chapters to build a welcoming community within chapters and our FBLA conferences where each member can thrive.

Alumni - Smriti Somasundaram

"Throughout my journey in FBLA, I developed my confidence in a business-oriented environment and transformed from a shy freshman, unaware of the opportunity the world of business behold, into a confident leader ready to take advantage of every moment. Using what I learned throughout my competitive events and leadership positions, I have discovered my passion for the intersection of tech, design, and business and hope the next generation of leaders will utilize the amazing resources FBLA has to offer." - 2021-22 State President
